

Undocumented SCHOLARSHIPS

Created by the Alliance for Immigrant Justice
(formally Dreamers Alliance United as One)

Below are scholarships that DACA/undocumented students may be eligible for. Scholarship information was obtained through several Indiana organization's scholarship packets that many of our past members have used to gain funding. It is in your best interest to double-check eligibility through the link or contact information provided. If scholarships are found to be ineligible for undocumented students please contact us at aij@iupui.edu to update the packet accordingly. Feel free to reach out if you know of any undocumented/DACA scholarship opportunities that are open to the public.

More information can be found on the last page.

CICF SCHOLARSHIPS

Central Indiana Community Foundation (CICF) was formed in 1997 serving both Marion and Hamilton County. CICF's mission is to mobilize people, ideas and investments to make this a community where all individuals have the opportunity to reach their full potential—no matter place, race or identity.

To apply for CICF scholarships, you must use the CICF online application system, which can be accessed by visiting www.cicf.org/scholarships

Requirements:

1. Official transcript: All applications require an official transcript or GED certificate. Please upload a copy of your GED certificate, or either your most recent high school or college transcript. Acceptable transcripts can be obtained from your school or the school's online system and must have your name, school name and student ID number.
2. References: All applications require two completed recommendation forms. As a courtesy, please allow your references at least two weeks to complete the request
3. Essays: All applications require at least two essays.
4. Financial Information: Applicants to all CICF scholarships are required to answer questions related to financial components associated with post-secondary education.

The Indianapolis Foundation Community Scholarship program, in partnership with the Mardell and Robert Hayford Scholarship Fund, specifically focuses on increasing the on-time post-secondary completion rate of low-income Marion County students. A preliminary report supported by Central Indiana Community Foundation's (CICF) College Readiness and Success Initiative indicates that less than 20 percent of students who graduated from Marion County school district in 2007 completed a post-secondary degree or certificate within nine semesters.

INDIANAPOLIS FOUNDATION COMMUNITY SCHOLARSHIP

The Indianapolis Foundation Community Scholarship works with a targeted group of organizations and programs that emphasize college readiness and success by focusing on students who participate in those programs.
